Presidents' Message

Welcome to the 164th Tavistock Agricultural Fall Fair. I have been reflecting on last year's fair and my first year as president. It was an exciting and rewarding first year representing our community. I am looking forward to this year's fall fair and to my last term as president. We have a lot of exciting things coming up this year including the RCMP Musical Ride on August 15, 2016 as well as our 2nd Annual Stache Bash the last weekend in November, with half of the proceeds going towards the Movember foundation which raises money for men's health.

This year's fall fair theme is "Nifty Fifties." I encourage you to come down to the fair and check out all of the displays in the arena and the parade in particular featuring the fifties era. This year we will be enjoying the Chuck Wagon Races with at least two shows on Saturday afternoon. The egg drop was cancelled last year due to weather, but it will back again this year with a pre-registration in the hospitality tent. We are excited to have "The Containment Unit" back again for the third year as our Saturday night entertainment. If you have not yet heard this band, I would advise you to come down, you will not be disappointed. We have our horse and livestock shows on Saturday and our fantastic car show on Sunday.

The Agricultural Society is thrilled for this year's fair and we would like to thank the community for your continued participation and support. Without you, our fair would not be the success that it is. See you down at the fair, the weekend after labour day.

Chad Keller, TAS President

A MESSAGE FROM THE 2015 AMBASSADOR

Nicole Stewart

Being Tavistock's 2015 Fair Ambassador has been a great honour and a most enjoyable experience. It has allowed me to enhance my communication skills, improve my public speaking, network with new people, and make many new friends. Having the opportunity to be a part of the Tavistock Agricultural Society has allowed me to take on a bigger role in my community, giving me the chance to learn new things and for that I am thankful.

Throughout my year as ambassador, it has been my privilege to be a part of many events and activities in the community. These events include Agricultural Society meetings, the Tavistock Christmas Parade, District 7 meetings, being a part of the RCMP Musical Ride committee, and awards banquets. The Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies conference held in Toronto at the Fairmount Royal York Hotel was one of the bigger events I attended along with 88 other ambassadors from across Ontario. At this event I listened to keynote speakers and enjoyed fun activities, while building friendships with my fellow Ambassadors. The Ambassadors from across Ontario, including myself will attend the Canadian National Exhibition Ambassador of the Fairs Competition. I am very honoured and excited to represent Tavistock at this final event on August 21, 2016 where I will compete for the title of CNE Ambassador of the Fairs!

I learned many new things about agriculture and our Tavistock community this past year. I carry an even greater sense of pride now that I have a better understanding of all the support that this town and its people provide to help make our fair a successful event. Through donations, volunteering, or coming out to attend the fair, I see how appreciated it is and for that I am very thankful. A tremendous thank you to the Tavistock Opti-Mrs for supporting me last year at the beginning of my journey, the Tavistock Agricultural Society for accepting me as part of their team, and the Fair Ambassador committee for giving me this opportunity. Finally, a special thank you to my Queen Mama Gloria Wettlaufer. She patiently answered my hundreds of questions and helped guide me every step of the way, I could not have made it through this past year without her.

Going into the Ambassador competition a year ago, and taking on the role as Tavistock's Ambassador, I was unsure what to expect. Looking back now, I am so grateful to have had this opportunity. One I certainly will never forget. I would like to wish all of this year's Ambassador contestants good luck and I hope you all have an incredible and fun-filled weekend no matter what the results are!

Sincerely, Nicole Stewart,
2015 Tavistock Fall Fair Ambassador
